University Preparatory Certificate Program

Bringing SINU to your Home

The University Preparatory Certificate Program

The University Preparatory Certificate Program (UPC) or the Learning Pathway Education (LPW) Program is designed and developed for Forms 3, 5 & 6 leavers and those being discontinued in Form 4 and the examination classes. The Program provide students with pathways to allow them to prepare for higher certificates and Technical Educational Training at SINU and other institutions. The UPC/LPW consisted of three (3) programs:- (A) University Preparatory Certificate 1 (B) University Preparatory Certificate 2 and University Preparatory Certificate 3.

A. University Preparatory Certificate 1 (UPC1)

This program is specifically designed for Form 3 leavers and discontinued Forms 4 & 5 students. This program bridge students to the University Preparatory Certificate 2 (UPC2) (Form 5 equivalent). Students who scored 70 and above in any of their form 3 subjects will cross credit their pass grades and only upgrade the subjects they failed. Students graduating in the UPC1 Program can apply to other Vocational Centres in the country, also, can continue on to do the UPC2 Program. The program has six (6) units and can be completed in two semesters.

B. University Preparatory Certificate 2 (UPC2)

The program is designed for Form 5 leavers. Students who scored grades 1 - 4 in their form 5 subjects will cross credit their pass grades and only upgrade the subjects they failed. UPC2 comprised of 6 units where students can complete in two semesters. Students after successfully completing this program can apply for SINU Higher Qualification Certificates Programs or continue on to do the UPC3 (Form 6 equivalent).

C. University Preparatory Certificate 3 (UPC3)

This program is designed for Form 6 leavers. Students with grades 1 - 4 in their form 6 subjects will cross credit their pass grades and only upgrade the subjects they failed. The program comprised of three (3) streams in the areas of Arts, Business and Science. Each stream has four (4) units and three (3) generic units of which every students doing each of the streams MUST do. This program can be completed in two semesters. Students can apply for Certificates, Diplomas and Degrees on campus after successfully completing this program.
